He goes into town every day, and on Monday carried the sheriff's horse in a saloon, declaring that he never would be arrested. Indignation at the sheriff's refusal to arrest De Graff is intense. Two grand juries, composed of Winston, J. H. Vaughn and L. L. Matlock, issued through the press today this challenge:

"So much has been said in regard to Peter De Graff in the streets and in the papers, that in order to find out if he is the corporate limit of Winston, we hereby challenge him to meet on foot at any time or place he may select. One of his attorneys may accompany him armed with a shot gun."

MARRIED A BARONESS.

Representative of a Chicago Piano House Captures Emma de Hodiamont.

(Special to THE HERALD—Examiner Dispatch.)

St. Louis, Aug. 5.—The Baronesse Emma de Hodiamont, nee Neau, was married yesterday by Charles S. Read, the representative of a Chicago piano house. He met her two months ago, while he was searching for a boarding house, and it was a case of love at first sight. The baronesse was the subject of diplomatic correspondence between the United States government and Holland some time ago. Her grandfather was wealthy, and when she was young was in stylish convents, was placed in the Ursuline convent at Hyden, Holland, when she was 15. The correspondence with her grandmother in this country ceased for several years, and it was said Miss de Neau was imprisoned in the convent. Application was then made to the state department for an investigation. It was said that a second cousin at Miss de Neau, Count Dersamant, 40 years old, had determined to marry her or make her a nun. The American minister made inquiries, but in the interval Miss de Neau went to visit relatives and then hurried to America. She is said to be very wealthy.

"My husband is the descendant of the Baron Mannel de Hodiamont," she said today, "and justly entitled to be called baronesse, but as a true little American I prefer to be called simply Mrs. Charles S. Read."

STOOD OFF THE COPS.

A Serious Affray at the Salt Lake Brewery.

Sergeant Kallinger Attacked by a Barley Brewer, and the Latter is Laid Out with a Club.

Late on Thursday evening Officer Shannon had placed in his hands a warrant for the arrest of a man named Siegbert, foreman of the Salt Lake brewery. When Shannon entered the brewery in quest of Siegbert he was intercepted by other employees, and found it impossible to serve the paper. He returned to the police headquarters, and yesterday morning it was decided to arrest the men who enabled Siegbert to escape. Chris Kuehn and Chris Scholm were soon taken in by a squad of ten policemen, but Foreman Siegbert could not be found.

Nick Geiser, just at this time was observed making his way towards the big beer cellar, evidently with the intention of making his escape. Several officers started in pursuit, when Geiser seized a barbed wire and made a savage dive at Sergeant Kallinger who was in the lead. Kallinger dodged, however, and then floored the brute with his club. The electric lights of the brewery were then turned off and Geiser was dragged away. Lake Morris was sent for, and Chief Paul demanded that Geiser be surrendered. Morris claimed that he did not know anything about the man, but finally agreed to pilot the officers through the building, which he did. "Nick" however, was not to be found, but Morris promised that he would produce both Geiser and Siegbert later in the day.

At a late hour last night neither of the men wanted had been apprehended.

W. H. IRVINE.

A Call Upon Him in the Lincoln, Neb., Jail.

Mr. J. B. Walden returned yesterday from a business trip east. On his return he dropped off to see W. H. Irvine at Lincoln, Neb. Mr. Irvine he says is confined in the Lincoln jail pending his trial which comes off October 3. He bears the marks of great mental distress and has the appearance of having undergone a spell of sickness. His attitude toward the people of Salt Lake City in his act of treason is unbecoming. He seemed particularly gratified that his friends here were not confined to any particular class.

"I was only in Lincoln a day," said Mr. Walden, "and all inquiries I made concerning his case demonstrated a decided public feeling in his favor. Mr. Irvine, though deeply bowed down by his own distress, had many inquiries to make about his old home, and his many friends here, and it is my judgment that if his health holds out he will soon return to make this his home for life. Mr. C. Abbott of Lincoln, a very able lawyer and an old friend of Mr. Irvine's, is his principal attorney, and will be assisted in the case by several of the prominent attorneys of the Lincoln bar."

The notable features of Zion were explained, and they left impressed with the sights they had seen. They expressed their gratitude for the hospitality which was extended them by the Salt Lake Knights Templar. They were a very party, sixty-seven of whom were Knights.

A REMOVED CUT.

Low Rates to Denver From Salt Lake City.

There is blood on the railway moor.

HONESTLY, DON'T YOU THINK YOUR HUSBAND

DESERVES a good dinner when he comes home from the day's work, and how can you provide it if you have a range that don't work—won't bake, won't draw, and if you love your husband to enjoy peace and contentment of soul, as well as of body, you will look carefully to the kind of Range or Cook Stove you buy. It is almost an axiom that the "road to man's heart is through his stomach," hence it is almost always true that you find a happy home where the creature comforts are provided regularly and without fuss and worry. A customer said to the writer: "Seeing as you do, so many people having many minds, don't you fall to please—have some who complain?" Oh, dear! yes, I said, and it worries me sadly at times. However, we exercise great care in the selection of goods and then try faithfully to present the merits of the goods as they are, without exaggeration, and we strive honestly to satisfy the customer. In fact, we have often gone to more trouble and cost to please a customer who fancied he had cause for grievance than would be justified by the profit in the transaction. We want to say right here that the "Jewell" Steel Range is one of the several things we sell that has never failed to receive the unqualified approval of the user. No danger that you will have a poor dinner for that husband if you get a "Jewell." No danger of your dining room being hot and stuffy if you get a "Quick Meal" Gasoline Stove. No danger that your house will be cold and draughty if you get a "Howe Ventilator" or a "Mages Boston Heater Furnace." You can not afford to slight these things. Examine, investigate, consult us.

THE ACT IS VOID.

A New York Court Makes a Decision in Regard to the Appointments Act.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Aug. 5.—The application for a mandamus by the city attorney compelling the board of supervisors to appoint according to the recent state law was denied this morning. The court holds that there are inequalities in the appointments act so gross as to senate and assembly districts that it is impossible to carry out the provisions of the act as amended, and, therefore, the act is void. The court cites New York, 55; Wisconsin case, 51; North-western Reporter, and the Michigan case just decided.
